

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines

The Deux Amis Sonoma County Zinfandel 2005 reflects the quality and diversity of the vineyards within the county. The Dry Creek ripe raspberry and black pepper characteristics blend seamlessly with the black cherry and plum contributed by Alexander Valley fruit. The aroma also holds the alluring vanilla notes that come with oak aging.

A selection from
American Estates Wines